DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species:
 - Group I (Claims 1-31), this group of claims is directed toward an encoder/decoder that embodies the use of specifically two distinct transforms in order to process data according to a quality standard.
 - Group II (Claims 32-57), this group of claims specifically embodies an encoder/decoder that incorporates the use of 'tiling' plural windows from different channels within a multi-channel encoder/decoder.
 - Group III (Claims 58-76), this group distinctly employs the determination of quantization noise in order to perform a weighting function as a pre-processing step before transforming and quantizing data.
 - Group IV (Claims 77-95), this group distinctly groups channels together in an effort to perform multi-channel transformations.
 - Group V (Claims 96-115), this group is directed towards the use of a hierarchal system of transforms in which to perform multi-channel transformations.
 - Group VI (Claims 116-155), this group is directed towards the selection of transforms to be performed from among a plurality of available transforms. This group also involves an 'on/off' capability of controlling the use of transforms.
 - Group VII (Claims 156-167), this group is directed towards the use of a plurality of matrices and the subsequent factorization of a matrix.

Art Unit: 2626

2. The species are independent or distinct because while all embodiments deal with encoding/decoding of multi-channel audio inputs, each method/computer-readable medium attempts a patently distinct method of performing transformations on the input signals.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, no claim is generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art due to their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.
